

Prayer:

‘Gathered and scattered, God is with us;’

God, our challenger and disturber,
Help us to confront
All that makes for death and despair
In our lives, our communities and our world.
May we never lose sight
Of the possibility of transformation,
And be continually surprised
By people who believe in one another.

Amen